Fake news or not??

News can affect people to the core.

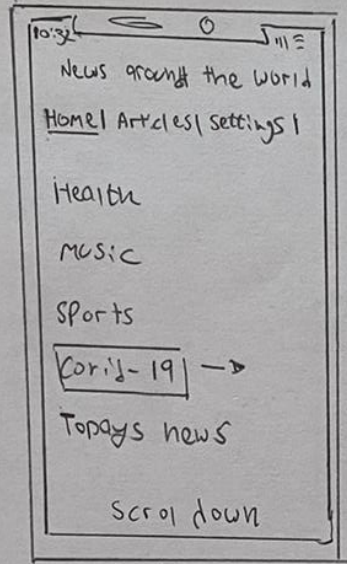

We need to be careful what we read and from where we read it.

Always use multiple sources.

Result of Testing

All of our participants stayed put with their point of view after reading the article.

Prototype overview

We managed to put all our thoughts in the prototypes, leaving nothing out.

We only improved our thoughts and made our project better.

Wizard of oz technique and hard-coded features: almost everything since we demonstrated almost every possible outcome for the presentation of our app.
